✓ Ensure my products are compliant with all relevant requirements as specified by Australian standards, regulations and legislation

✓ Expect that my product could be the subject of a testing program and will sell stock products for testing

✓ Understand that non-conformances with certification could lead to removal from the CEC approved product list

✓ Include full disclosure of country of manufacture in my customer documentation

✓ Maintain a public website which provides access to customer documentation (datasheet, install manual and warranty) as provided to CEC by the manufacturer.
